

Department of English,

MMC presents

3.45 pm
Seminar Hall

Debutants

Literature Day
20.05.22

The Department of English celebrated Literature Day on 20th May, 2022. The event was designed to inspire the students to come forward with their ideas on literature by portraying various fictional characters on stage. Students were also encouraged to dress accordingly for the occasion to make the event more vibrant and appealing. Students of all the semesters enacted skits or appeared as solo characters on stage, the teachers of the department also presented a short skit which featured a medley of Shakespearean soliloquies.

Number of participants: 70.